A webmaster and the LRFC Committee will provide accountability and control over material published on our club's website and any related discussion groups or social media websites, such as Facebook, YouTube or Twitter.

Website

- Our website will include current information or links to competitions, social events, committees, policies, constitution and rules.
- No offensive content or photos will be published.

- Communication involving children will be directed through their parents.

Social Media sites

Social Media sites such as Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, Flickr, LinkedIn, YouTube, as well as Forums and Blogs are exciting new avenues expressing creativity, and sharing interests and knowledge. Participation in these online communities is therefore supported. However, over a number of years there have been repeated incidents where online discussions and posting of online content have caused distress to individuals or groups and has detracted from the community's and Clubs overall enjoyment of Football.

- We treat all social media postings, blogs, status updates and tweets as public 'comment'.

Club Policy

- Anonymous comments are discouraged. All content posters should be required to supply a valid email address before they can post, authorized posters may identify themselves with an alias, rather than their real name.
- LRFC encourages all players, parents or members to "think before posting". Players, Parents or Members should recognize that even if posting to a private section of a social networking site comments can appear in public areas through a variety of means and can easily be found.
